Civil action No. _____ v.

Street Pixs (sued in their individual and official capacity)

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

Jurisdiction: 1. This is a civil action authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 1332 and 1343(a)(3). Plaintiff seeks declaratory relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 and 2202.

Venue: 2. The Southern district of Texas is an appropriate venue under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because it is where the defendants initiated the events.

Facts: 3. In response to an advertisement plaintiff attempted to make a purchase of 200 photos priced at $45.00 by purchasing a Money order to pay with by mail 1/27/21. On 2/4/21 I attempted to buy an additional 1,002 photos with 358 stamps at face value which amounted to a $200.48 payment at the time relevant to this case by mail also, this advertisement stated if you buy 1,000 or more photos they'll be .20¢ each. I then proceeded to set up a prepaid account with the defendants assuming the delay was due to the Prison and mailed 358 stamps on 2/25/21 which would've given me a $200.48 balance and their "V.I.P. status." I became combative with skepticism when inquiring the designated officers about my order and grew excessively anxious and required psychiatric attention and adjustments, this created an ill relationship with the officer and I. I began sending letters to the defendants for assistance with being issued my orders and depression surfaced as I realised I've gotten swindled and required psychiatric attention and adjustments. I contacted the Better Business Bureau and the defendants evaded them also. The B.B.B. Concluded their investigation and recommended that I take legal action.

Claims: 4. Defendants Violated the; Customer rights act of V.A., Customer rights act of T.X., Lanham Act, V.A. unfair trade act, T.X. Unfair trade act, 15 U.S.C.S. § 1125 (a) (1) (B), Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law. The Defendants actions constitutes; Mail Fraud, Consumer Fraud, Fraud, False advertisement, and Breach of Contract by participating in the alleged facts, under the Civil RICO.

Relief: 5 Wherefore, plaintiff respectfully pray that this Court enter a judgment granting plaintiff a declaration that the acts and omissions described herein violated his rights and statutes of the United States and Compensatory damages amounting to $20,000 and punitive damages amounting to $75,000 and expectancy damages amounting to $250,000 and discretionary damages amounting to $650,000 and Statutory damages amounting to $1,000,000 against the defendants jointly and severally. Plaintiff also seeks recovery of costs in this suit and any additional relief this Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,
